

THE BRETHREN: A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF SECONDARY STUDIES

DAVID BRADY

The following bibliography is based primarily on the holdings of the Christian Brethren Archive in the John Rylands University Library of Manchester; hence the CBA shelfmarks quoted at the end of most entries. It is recognized that there are probably many other items, as yet unknown to the compiler, which might be added to the bibliography and advice on additions or corrections is welcome. Please contact The Archivist, Christian Brethren Archive, John Rylands University Library of Manchester, Oxford Road, Manchester M13 9PP, U.K. It is hoped that the bibliography in its present form will enable researchers to identify important studies of the Brethren in their various facets.

The bibliography also appears on the library's website at <https://www.library.manchester.ac.uk/search-resources/special-collections/guide-to-special-collections/christian-brethren-collections/printed-material/bibliography/> which is the place to watch for future updates.
